FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2019

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of London Goodenough Association of Canada,

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of London Goodenough Association of Canada (the organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as at December 31, 2019, and the statements of operations, changes in fund balances and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of London Goodenough Association of Canada as at December 31, 2019 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the organization in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the organization's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw your attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the organization to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Revenue recognition

The principal sources of revenue and recognition of these revenues for financial statement purposes are as follows:

Donations received for operations and scholarships

The Association uses the restricted fund method for accounting for donations received for the purpose of general operations and for funding scholarships whereby donations are recorded as revenue in the period received.

Other restricted donations

The Association follows the deferral method of revenue recognition for restricted donations for which no corresponding restricted fund is presented. Other restricted donations, except for endowment contributions, are initially recorded as deferred contributions and subsequently recognized as revenue in the Operating Fund in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. Externally restricted endowment contributions are recognized as direct increases in net assets when recorded in the accounts.

Contributed materials and services

Contributed materials and services which are normally purchased by the organization are not recorded in the accounts.

Investment income

Investment income, which comprises interest from cash, interest and dividends from fixed income and equity securities and unrealized and realized gains and losses on the sale of marketable securities is recorded in statement of operations in the Operating Fund, except to the extent that it is externally restricted in which case it is recognized as revenue in the statement of operations in the Scholarship Fund.

Scholarship payments

Scholarship payments are recorded as an expense when awarded.

Foreign currency translation

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies have been translated into Canadian dollars at the rate of exchange prevailing at the year end. Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Canadian dollars at exchange rates prevailing at the transaction date. Foreign exchange gains and losses are included in the statement of operations.

2. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RELATED FINANCIAL RISKS

The Association's financial instruments include cash, marketable securities, accounts payable and accrued liabilities. Marketable securities are measured at fair market value. Fair market values are determined by reference to published price quotations in an active market at year end. Accounts payable and accrued liabilities are initially recorded at fair value and are subsequently recorded net of any provisions for impairment in value. The Association's financial instruments are exposed to various financial risks through transactions in financial instruments including the following:

Interest rate risk

The Association's fixed income securities are exposed to interest rate risk because the fair value of these securities will fluctuate based on changes in market interest rates.

Currency risk

The Association's equities and pooled funds are exposed to foreign currency risk with respect to its investments denominated in foreign currencies, because the fair value and future cash flows will fluctuate due to the changes in the relative value of foreign currencies against the Canadian dollar.

Other price risk

The Association's equities and pooled funds are exposed to other price risk through changes in market prices (other than changes arising from interest rate or currency risks).

3. CASH

Cash comprises:

	2019	2018
BMO bank account	$ 112,224	$ 159,404
BMO Harris investment portfolio	36,573	36,961
	$ 148,797	$ 196,365

4. MARKETABLE SECURITIES

Marketable securities consist of fixed income investments, including government and corporate bonds, and equities, including pooled funds. The market value of marketable securities at December 31 was as follows:

	2019	2018
Equities and pooled funds	$ 1,004,406	$ 724,679
Fixed income securities	966,756	753,442

5. DEFERRED CONTRIBUTIONS

The following amount has been deferred at the year end:

	2019	2018
Donations received for charitable purposes at Goodenough College	$ 316,323	$ 372,159

Continuity of deferred contributions for the year is as follows:

	2019	2018
Deferred contributions, beginning of year	$ 372,159	$ 449,678
Add: Cash received from donations for charitable purposes related to Goodenough College	44,218	78,883

Deferred contributions, end of year	$ 316,323	$ 372,159

During the year, the Association recognized donation revenue of $100,054 related to amounts received for charitable purposes related to Goodenough College as described in parts (b), (d) and (e) of the purposes of the Association ($156,402 recognized as revenue in 2018).

The Association monitors the use of the funds disbursed to Goodenough College to ensure that the funds are utilized in the manner specified by the LGAC and are in accordance with the Association's charitable purposes.

6. ENDOWMENT

The endowment represents resources that are required by the donor to be maintained in perpetuity by the Association. In 2019, investment income of $17,241 was earned on endowment net assets.

7. SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Scholarship Program (the Program) is a key purpose of the LGAC's fundraising activity. Scholarship Program payments are made to Goodenough College as a rental subsidy on behalf of the winners and are incurred in September in respect of each academic year. Payments to the College are remitted in two installments, one in the fourth quarter of the year and the balance in the first quarter of the following year.

8. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak of a coronavirus (COVID-19) a pandemic. This presents uncertainty regarding the organization's future cash flows and the valuation of the organization's investments. The impact of social distancing may significantly impact the organization's future operations. An estimate of the financial impact of the pandemic on these financial statements is not practicable and therefore no adjustments related thereto have been made.
